

Attention FDA

5604 '00 MAR 22 AIO:30

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

I should not be forced to have a medical exam & or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid! I am paying for the help I need to restore my hearing and believe I should have free choice.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

In cases like this I believe the people can get assistance from a family member or friend. I have had very successful results with the aids I have purchased for myself.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

Absolutely not. This is a personal choice and should remain as it is.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Of course. Free choice is mandatory and is part of the reason we live in the U.S.A.
